MRS. CHARLES F. McNAMARA

Passing Away of a Sweet Christian Character

News of the death of Mrs. Charles F. McNamara, which occurred last night at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati, was a painful blow to her family and wide circle of friends here. The surgical operation which was the purpose of her sojourn at the hospital had been reported a success, and nothing but hopeful news had been received from her physicians, and none were prepared for the announcement of her demise. She was in her 58th year and is survived by a devoted husband and three boys and a little girl of tender years.

Attorney Frank P. O'Donnell of this city and Mr. Hugh O'Donnell and Mrs. Mary O'Hara of Chicago are brothers and sister to deceased. The body will be brought to the home of her mother, Mrs. Annie O'Donnell in Bridge and Loday streets, this afternoon. Arrangements for the funeral have not been announced. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the grief-stricken and bereaved husband and motherless children.

"THE DEVIL'S WAGES"

And How Sinners Draw Their Pay When Due

Last night the meeting at the Forest Avenue M. E. Church reached the climax of the week. Rev. Lewis preached a powerful sermon on "The Wage the Devil Pays." After the sermon ten held up their hands, saying that they were going to accept Christ, and four came to the altar.

"I see," began Dr. Lewis, holding a copy of the Iconoclast paper up, "that the Devil and his cohorts, as of old, are still quoting the Bible. This is a booze paper, published and supported by a bunch of booze hinders, saloon keepers and distillers. It quotes more Bible than the average Sunday-school paper."

Sunday will be a great day. "Decision Day" is the Sunday-school. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Men's and boys' meeting at 3 p. m.

NEW KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

First District—John W. Landrum, Graves county.
Second District—J. W. McCulloch, Devine county.
Third District—J. Frank Taylor, Berren county.
Fourth District—John P. Haswell, Breckinridge county.
Fifth District—J. M. Chilton, Jefferson county.
Sixth District—Richard P. Ernst, Kenton county.

Eleventh District—A. T. Siler, Whitley county.

Should the Republican party break a precedent for Mr. Roosevelt which they refused General Grant?

A treaty with Japan has been negotiated, bringing about genuine friendship between her and the United States.

Do the people want President Taft for another term? Nine Republican Governors openly indorse him, and three more are known to be for him.

The party refused to nominate President Arthur, and gave it to that popular idol, the "Plumed Knight," James G. Blaine, who went down in defeat.

The Panama Canal has been brought to a approaching completion and the date of opening advanced by several months through systematic work.

The Postoffice Department has been placed upon a self-sustaining basis, and for the first time in twenty-five years shows substantial net revenue to its credit.

The difficult situation resulting from the revolution in Mexico, arousing deep feeling in the southern portions of the United States, was handled with diplomacy and tact.

A new policy as to river and harbor appropriations has been begun, the old "pork barrel" appropriation system abandoned, and the business policy of continuing contracts adopted.

It has been predicted that President Taft will withdraw within thirty days.—London (Ky.) Echo.

Mr. Taft has already "withdrawn" from going after the delegates—he has enough in sight now to cinch the nomination at Chicago. All we ask is that Teddy will take his medicine like a brave little man. That's the way we're going to take ours should the Lion hunter win at Chicago.

There seems to be method in Teddy's madness. He had no other means of remaining in the spotlight and he is now heading the Socialist-anarchist element and is fast bringing on class-hatred in the United States that bodes ill for all constitutional law. This accounts for his "popular victory" in Illinois, where Altgeld the anarchist Governor had a very brief political existence. Who ever imagined that Theodore Roosevelt would land in such company?

A WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the croup or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of that medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "just the thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only 31c. in stamps—1,000 pages in splendid cloth binding. A good family adviser for any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. MARYANN ZIEGLER, of 323 S. Bentham Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the trouble came to our house I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and which made me a different woman in a short time. After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I finally knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the worst of all nursed three children who had whooping cough. I hardly know of the advent ten minutes before they were well. The baby is as fat as a butter-bell. Mr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

A Bureau of Minors has been created. Steps have been taken toward a new employer's liability and workmen's compensation act and the adoption of additional safety appliances on railroads.

But two ex-Presidents have sought to break the wise precedent set by Washington that two terms should be the limit. The people said "No" to the first aspirant. What will they say now.

The Treasury agents and customs employees have been re-organized, fraud has been weeded out of the customs service, and many thousands of dollars lost under fraudulent importations have been recovered.

On July 1st, 1909, the Taft administration faced a deficit of $56,000,000. On July 1st, 1910, the deficit was wiped out, and a surplus of $14,000,000 was created. On July 1st, 1911, the surplus had increased to $47,000,000.

"President Taft administration, measured by all standards of accomplishment and fidelity to duty, entitles him to the indorsement of a second term, which I believe the inherent sense of fairness and justice of the American people will ungrudgingly give him."—Adolph O. Elberhart, Gov. of Minn.

"Confusion in business and in affairs generally was the legacy awaiting President Taft when he entered upon the duties of his office. Pledged by himself and his party to correct this condition, he undertook the most difficult task since Lincoln's time and has succeeded."—John R. Tener, Gov. of Pennsylvania.

Hon. Seth Low, a friend of Colonel close Roosevelt, in expressing his preference the otherday, said:

"I recognize that it is much easier to be progressive out of office, without responsibility, than to be progressive in office, with responsibility. Judged by any fair test of accomplishment, I think the administration of President Taft fully deserves to be called 'progressive.'"

At the end of the fiscal year, June 30th, 1910, the current expense of the Government amounted to $662,000,000. On June 30th, 1911, the expenditures for the current year amounted to $654,000,000, making a saving of $8,000,000. The natural increase of governmental expenditures amounts to about four per cent. per year. The Taft administration has reversed the order of things and shows a decrease as before stated.

At Boston, Mass., a remarkable case of precocity came to light when Willie Filders, 9 years old, was trying to run away from school during the morning recess and was brought back by the teacher. "Willie," said the teacher sadly, "after you ran away Wednesday and Thursday of last week, what was it you promised me?" "My position is perfectly simple," Willie replied. "I stated it as clearly as I could when I came back to school Friday. I said that under no circumstances would I run away from school another day—meaning, of course, another consecutive day. I could not have said less at the time nor could I have said more. As Willie was about to continue his explanation by pointing out that there was no school Saturday, a swishing sound, as of a descending gad, interrupted him.

MAYSVILLE CITIZENS GLADLY TESTIFY AND CONFIDENTLY RECOMMEND DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills on a far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Maysville citizen:

Mrs. Dora Mefford, Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me a lot of good and I am glad to tell about it. I had been feeling poorly for some time, before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them, and before long I was entirely better. I was able to sleep well and they improved my health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlbarn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

PROMINENT PEOPLE

WILL TRY TO WIN BACK MOORS

Mme. Camille Dugast, the famous explorer, aviator and aeronaut, just now is trying to civilize the tribes of southern Morocco, hearing a special commission from the French minister of education.

While her task is a stupendous one and fraught with many dangers from poisonous insects and jungle plagues, and is forced to put up with many inconveniences, Mme. Dugast writes to a friend here that civilizing savages is mere child's play compared with the work of trying to ward off proposals from the marriageable tribes chiefs and even the sultan himself.

The sultan is one of Mme. Dugast's most consistent admirers and ever since she became interested in Morocco he has paid persistent court to her. First, he offered her the superintendency of his harem, which is the same as to say he wanted to make her his principal wife. Mme. Dugast very cleverly avoided offending her royal suitor and at the same time firmly rejected the offer.

Then someone whispered to the disappointed sultan that Mme. Dugast was brought up in a more conventional manner, and that European women were not accustomed to sharing their affections with a hundred or more other wives.

Forthwith the sultan sought the handsome explorer and offered his hand and heart, together with his title, and promised that he would dismiss his harem and marry her in the more conventional way, a la European mode.

Mme. Dugast found it more difficult this time to refuse the proposal, but managed to do so without giving offense and jeopardizing her life-work among the tribes.

SECURES A STRENUOUS POST

Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson accepted the post in Mexico City two years ago because he had become weary of the inactivity at the Brussels legation, where the only diplomatic excitement was the wearisome controversy over the Belgian atrocities in the Congo. President Taft was anxious to have him accept one of the European posts, as fortunately he is rich enough to pay the bills for house rent and hospitality which these appointments demand, but he chose Mexico City just for the pleasure of downright hard work and hard fighting.

And he has certainly obtained it. It would be difficult to overestimate the difficulties of his position. The intrigues and cabals against him have been legion, and they have been especially strong and bitter among his own countrymen.

Before Mr. Wilson left the American legation in Brussels for his appointment at Mexico City he was besieged by representatives of different American interests in Mexico, who made overtures to bargain for his influence in pushing their enterprises. His mail brought frequent letters inclosing blocks of stock made out in his name, and when they were returned the promoters promptly sent them back, made out to Mrs. Wilson.

It was not until the ambassador had been in Mexico City several months that his vehement denunciation of these capitalists made them realize finally that he could not be induced to work for them except in a legitimate way. And since that time his path has certainly been a thorny way.

ROYAL ROMANCE IS BLIGHTED

In indisputable authority it is learned that Princess Victoria Luise of Prussia, only daughter of the Kaiser, is the unhappy heroine of a "true love" romance, which is now finding a sequel in the princess' "rest cure" with her father on the Mediterranean.

The princess, who will be 20 years old next September, fell deeply in love during the recent court season, according to reports current in society, with the hereditary Count Fugger, a lieutenant in the elite gendarmes corps at Potsdam and a descendant of an ancient Bavarian family, which was once the wealthiest in Europe.

The affection was mutual, but it was necessary to represent to the princess that marriage was impossible, not only on account of the difference in the lovers' rank, but also because the Fuggers are devout Roman Catholics.

The princess succumbed to a distressing attack of nervous prostration and, as was required, at the height of the court season, to abstain from further participation in it. It was announced at the time that she was suffering from an "affection of the throat."

As soon as the season ended the Kaiser and Kaiserin decided to send their daughter to St. Moritz with the crown prince and princess, in the hope that she would forget her troubles amid the joys of the Swiss winter sports. This "cure" was apparently not a complete success, because it was found desirable that the princess should not remain in Germany over the spring with the Kaiserin, as originally planned, but should instead sojourn on the Mediterranean and at Cortu with the Kaiser until the end of the season.

MIGUEL TO FIGHT FOR MANUEL

The proposed movement to restore King Manuel of Portugal to the throne from which he was deposed by his people will be one of the most formidable ever prepared against an existing government, according to the man who expects to lead it, Dom Miguel of Braganza.

The former pretender, who has entered into an offensive and defensive agreement with Manuel, discussed his plans freely the other day, only insisting that such portions as might be of benefit to the Portuguese government be withheld.

Dom Miguel prefaced his remarks by praising Americans he has met, paying especial compliment to Mrs. J. H. Smith, mother of his daughter-in-law and widow of the American speculator, "Silent" Smith.

He emphasized his belief that it is only a question of time when the Portuguese monarchy will be restored, citing recent outbreaks in various parts of that country to support his contention that the present republican government is unstable.

Neither property nor personal rights are respected at present, he alleged.

OUR WEEKLY SPORT LETTER

BY C. H. ZUBER.

CINCINNATI, O., April 11th, 1912.

The world's championship for 1912 will not be decided by the games with which the National and American League's season will be inaugurated today. Many a player who will star in the opening jousts of today will not be fast company when the curtain rises down on the 154-game schedule in the fall. In baseball, more than in any other line of sport one victory does not make a championship, and a one-day slugger is not necessarily a hot rival of Ty Cobb. So whatever the outcome of today's battles may be, they will afford no definite line upon which form opinions of the outcome of the championship race in the two big circuits. Some of the teams starting in the season today are not yet in shape to do their best—or their worst, as the case may be. Several are suffering severe handicaps in the way of having valuable players injured, this being especially true of the Philadelphia Nationals, who will be minus the services of pitcher Chalmers and outfielder Mages for at least a month. So, no matter whatever the results of these first games may be, do not allow them to exert an influence in making that bet of a ten-cent cigar that the Boston Nationals will be the next world's champions, with the St. Louis Browns fighting them for the honor.

Visiting ball players, club owners and building experts declare that the new Cincinnati Ball Park is easily the most complete plant for the giving of sport exhibitions in the country. It will no longer be necessary for the Sunday visitors to suffer agony with these new shows, standing for hours watching the practice and the game, for there are seats for nearly 25,000 people provided in the new stands, and that is about as many as will come out to see any game during the regular season. Every seat, whether box or bleacher, has a perfect view of the entire diamond; and with a larger playing field than heretofore, Cincinnati fans will enjoy better sport than ever before. It is expected that both the Pirates, who play here on Sunday, April 14th, and the St. Louis Cardinals, who come on Sunday, April 21st, will come pretty near filling all the seats.

The racing game in Mexico has finally reached a stage where it is expected that next season will see a general clean-up in the race.

of turf attractions at the Juncos track, which is located just across the river from El Paso. Despite the rivaltions which kept things in a turmoil on the Northern border, the American promoters at Juncos earned a profit of $50,000, with excellent prospects of increasing that amount considerably next year. A new hotel will be erected at El Paso to accommodate visitors, large stakes will be offered by the track management, with the expected results that the attendance will be larger and closer.

The stay of Jim Flynn, the most prominent of the "white hopes" during the present week, has developed nothing that would lead one to believe that the Colorado fireman would be wearing the world's championship title after his battle with Jack Johnson on the Fourth of July. Flynn looks like an ordinary fighter with much strength, but nothing of the artistic to make him an even money proposition in his coming scrap with the colored champion. It is not unlikely that Flynn will soon take the same course as that other "white hope" Carl Morris, who has returned to his locomotive work in Oklahoma, with the remark that "there's no use spilling a good engineer to make a poor fighter."

It is promised that practically every big racing stable in America will be represented at the spring meeting of the Latonia Jockey Club, which opens on Decoration Day, May 30th, and continues for a season of thirty days. This means that Cincinnati fans will witness a higher class of racing this year than ever before, a fact which will add greatly to the increased interest which has been manifested in the running game here during the past two years. The Latonia Derby, which is at a mile and a half, probably will be run on June 8th, with such famous starters as Worth, Sprito, Presumption, The Manager, Sonnets and others.
